

DISCLAIMER – PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT

Aldor Africa would like to welcome you to its website.

By viewing this website you hereby acknowledge that you have read and accepted the following Protection of Personal Information (POPI) disclaimer.

You understand and agree that all information provided, whether personal or otherwise, may be used and processed by the “owner” of this website, and such use may include placing such information in the public domain.

Further by continuing to access this website you specifically agree that the Company will use such information provided by you, irrespective of the nature of such information.

Aldor Africa shall take all reasonable measures to protect the personal information of users and for the purpose of this disclaimer “personal information” shall be defined as detailed in the Promotion of Access to Information Act, Act 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”) and the Protection of Personal Information Act, Act 4 of 2013 (“POPI”).

The PAIA and POPI Acts are available online at www.gov.za/documents/acts.

As per the POPI Act personal information refers to information that identifies or relates specifically to you as a person or data subject, for example, your name, age, gender, identity number and your email address. A definition of personal information can be found in the Aldor Africa’s POPI policy.

- Directly from the person when he/she applies for any Aldor Africa's related employment, provide services to Aldor Africa, submit forms requests or transactions, use our websites or make use of any of the Aldor Africa services;
- From public registers, credit bureaus and law enforcement agencies and any other organisation from which Aldor Africa may acquire your information;
- From people and entities employed by Aldor Africa to provide services to Aldor Africa which may be legally entitled to provide Aldor Africa with personal information.

The Storage of Personal Information

All personal information collected by Aldor Africa will be stored as follows:

- In a secure and safe manner according to strict information security principles with safeguards to ensure its privacy and confidentiality;
- For no longer than is necessary to achieve the purpose for which it was collected unless further retention is:

Required by law or contractual obligation;

Otherwise reasonably required by Aldor Africa for lawful purposes related to its functions and activities;

Retained further with the person's consent:

After which the information will be de-identified and disposed of as per the Aldor Africa Control of Records policy.

Sharing of Personal Information

Any information supplied to Aldor Africa will be treated as confidential and Aldor Africa will not disclose information unless legally permitted thereto. No information will be transferred to a Third Party without the explicit consent of the data subject unless legally obliged thereto. By providing the personal information, the data subject agrees that Aldor Africa may transfer the information to the following people and organisations in pursuit of the data processing purposes set out in our POPI Policy:

- To the divisions and entities in the Aldor Africa Group, including directors, employees, contractors, agents, auditors, legal and other professional advisors who are authorised to process this information;
- To financial and government organisations who may request information from Aldor Africa, in which case the data subject will be notified in advance; the provision of such information, including banks, governmental, judicial, regulatory and law enforcement bodies including the South African Revenue services and the National Credit Regulator;
- To persons employed by Aldor Africa to provide services on our behalf and that adhere to principles similar to Aldor Africa regarding the treatment of personal information;
- To any person to whom Aldor Africa cede, delegate, transfer or assign any of our rights or obligations pertaining to products and/or services provided to the person or contracts concluded with the person;
- To any person who acts as legal guardian, executor of an estate, curator or in a similar capacity;
- To any person or persons who may be permitted by applicable law or that you may consent to, including persons or entities who may request such information to evaluate the credit worthiness of the person.

Your Rights regarding your Personal Information

A data subject (employee, contractor, supplier and/or customer) has the following rights to his/her personal information collected, processed and stored by Aldor Africa:

- Right of access to and the right to rectify or update the personal information collected;
- The right to object at any time to the processing of the personal information in which event the consequences of the objection will be explained to the data subject;
- The right to request Aldor Africa to no longer process the personal information of the data subject should the information not be required for further processing or by law.

General Conditions pertaining to Personal Information

Aldor Africa accepts no liability whatsoever for any loss, damage (whether direct, indirect, special or consequential) and/or expenses of any nature whatsoever which may arise as a result of, or which may be attributable directly or indirectly from information made available on these pages or links, or actions or transaction resulting there from.

The Laws of the Republic of South Africa will govern all terms and conditions of any products and services contained in these pages. Should you request products or services through the Aldor Africa Website you hereby consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the South African courts in regard to all proceedings, actions, applications or the like instituted by each party against the other, and in any way arising from any stated terms and conditions. If you do not agree to be bound by these terms, please exit this page and do not access or use the website.
